

Fill up your brain

We know you also have loads of fascinating and intriguing questions. Write down all the questions you can think of inside the brain and share them with your friends and family.

Questions and ideas taken from the Visual Philosophy for Children series by Wonder Ponder.

www.wonderponderonline.com

LOOK, THINK AND CELEBRATE WORLD PHILOSOPHY DAY

Ellen Duthie & Daniela Martagón

Hello, you! Yes, you!

What advantages are there to good thinking?

Are you good at thinking?

Is it possible to live life without thinking?

Are there any disadvantages to thinking?

What is it to think for oneself?

Visual Philosophy for Children

If you had two or three brains, would you be two or three people?

Harder!

Is it possible to be cruel to oneself? If so, who is the victim and who is the aggressor?

If we laugh at someone without them knowing we are laughing at them, is it cruel?

If you could fly would you be a freer person?

Can everyone do whatever they want at the same time?

Did you say cat stew?
Ewwwwwwwwww!

What things would you never ever eat? Why? Is there a difference eating chicken and eating cat? What exactly is the difference?

Got you!

Is the girl being cruel? Have you ever killed an ant or any other kind of bug on purpose? Why did you do it? Is it sometimes OK to kill ants? When? How many?

Does it make sense to hold a robot responsible for a crime?

What things do you think are already decided about your future?

Is it ok to sell people? Why?

Could a boybot be a better son than a human boy?
Could a robot be a better friend than a human?

How do you know that you are not a ROBOT?

WONDER PONDER